- By purchasing a tailgate spot at the East-West Shrine Game you agree to the following Rules and Policies set forth by Montana Tech in conjunction with the East-West Shrine Game.

Rules & Policies

- POLICY-- The Digger Athletic Association in conjunction with the East-West Shrine Game allows families to hold private tailgate parties in the fenced west lot next to Bob Green Field in conjunction with the Montana East-West Shrine game under the rules set forth in this policy.
- AUTHORITY -- Policy No. 503.1 of The Montana University System Policy and Procedures Manual authorizes service of alcoholic beverages at “substantive” events on a University of Montana Campus, where authorized by the President. Montana University Systems Regulations, Section 1008(1) (f) prohibit commercial activity on campus property without permission granted in writing by the President or his designee.
- CONDUCT—Individual, groups, and organizations holding or participating in tailgate parties are responsible for their own conduct and are expected to respect the rights of others. Groups holding tailgate parties are responsible for providing their own designated drivers. Montana Tech and the East West Shrine Game at their discretion may terminate tailgate parties or take other appropriate action against individuals or groups whose conduct is irresponsible, unreasonable, or inconsistent with Montana Tech policies and regulations, ordinances or laws.
- FOOD & DRINK – No organization, business or individual except Digger athletic association or Shrine sanctioned groups may offer food, non-alcoholic or alcoholic beverages for public consumption or sale (including “donations”) on the campus during the East West Shrine Game.
- UNDERAGE DRINKING – Tailgate parties must monitor their service of alcohol and may not serve alcohol to minors (under age 21.) Unattended alcohol will be confiscated.
- TIMES – Tailgate parties may begin no earlier than two and half hours before the scheduled start of the game and may not continue beyond the kick-off of the second half.
